+ 4TH SUNDAY OF LENT – YEAR C

“So we are ambassadors for Christ . . .” (2 Cor. 5.20)

‘Sorry’ is a word that is so simple but often very difficult to utter. The difficulty in saying that we are sorry when called for partly comes from our recognition of the reality it expresses, which is, the full and unconditional acceptance of our responsibility for the wrong we have done. We tend to feel that our reputation we need to protect will be damaged when we accept before someone else that we make mistakes, that we are inadequate and do things that are outrightly wrong, and, so, that we are not really as good as we would like people to believe. Of course, there is often a price to pay upon that acceptance. Yet we also know that saying ‘sorry’ when we are wrong, and resolving not to do the wrong again, is very essential in all human relationships. Far from being a sign of weakness, it shows that we are growing, that we are morally maturing and can take responsibility for our choices and actions. It expresses our genuine regret and sorrow for doing something wrong, and douses the temper, heals the hurt, and repairs and restores the damaged relationship our wrongdoing causes. When through repentance it is expressed, and through forgiveness accepted, it results in true reconciliation. Our Lord came into the world for this purpose, namely, to reconcile us to God and to one another. On His part, God is always willing and ready to forgive us our sins, as we pray daily in the Lord’s Prayer, so long as we are also willing and ready to forgive (Mt 6.12; Lk 11.4), and be reconciled with one another (Mt 5.23-24). In Christ, especially through His death (Rom. 5.10; Col. 1.20; Eph. 2.16), God has reconciled us to Himself (Rom. 3.25; 5.11; 2 Cor. 5.19), and He has given both to the institution of the Church and to us its individual members the charge to work in the name of Christ for the reconciliation of all through repentance and forgiveness of sin (Lk 24.47). As agents of reconciliation in the world, we are thus “ambassadors for Christ, God making His appeal through us.” (2 Cor. 5.20).

DVD series on the life of Mary is being shown after the 11am Mass each Sunday of Lent: Five engaging DVD sessions of 25 minutes each exploring the life of Mary are being shown in the church hall. Each Session has a different theme: Session 1 – Mary, Chosen by God; Session 2 – Mary, The First Disciple; Session 3 – Mary, Mother of All; Session 4 – Mary, Queen of Heaven; Session 5 – Mary, Help of Christians. The first three sessions went really well, remaining two to go. Please come, and bring some snacks to share. Everyone is welcome, including children as there will be activities for them too.

CARDINAL'S LENTEN APPEAL 2019 funds initiatives in parishes, schools and charities in the three mission areas of: Marriage and Family Life, enriching and supporting marriages, the essential building block of society and the Church; Youth and Evangelisation, supporting young people, the future of the Church, as they grow in their relationship with God and deepen their Catholic faith; and the Church's Service in Society, putting our faith into action by serving the poor, the lonely and the marginalised. This year, the Cardinal is asking us to think about the last of these in particular and has launched a new programme focusing on the food poverty that affects so many across the diocese. Much of this poverty remains hidden. Many use foodbanks even though there is a wage earner in the family. Please take a donation leaflet as you leave Mass today. To find out about volunteering opportunities, visit CardinalsLentenAppeal.org.uk. Cardinal Nichols: "I hope this Appeal offers you and your family one way in which to observe Lent and to grow in the richness of our response to God's blessings of life and faith."

Thank you for returning the hymn books/Mass cards to the shelves at the end of Mass.
